

KAPAA NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. David W. Keyes, who left here two years ago, returned last week to spend the holidays at their former home. Mr. Keyes was formerly a contractor here.

Deputy Sheriff Hano and his officers, aided by Prohibition Officer Bettencourt, made one of the largest hauls of illicit liquors in this district early last Saturday morning at Wallua Kai. Shinichi Okumura was the name given by the Japanese when arrested. Fifty gallons of clear white okolehau, 50 gallons of maah and a complete still was discovered on the premises. The Japanese was charged with manufacturing and having illicit liquor in his possession and was fined $125 and costs in the district court by Judge Ekekela, Saturday.

S. Nakamura, another Japanese of Wallua, was arrested with six gallons of oke in his possession. He got off with a fine of $100 and costs.

The rebuilding of the road from the Wallua homesteads to Kapaa proper has already passed Camp 18, and progressing rapidly. It is expected that the remainder will be finished not later than February of next year.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Horner Sr. arrived here last week to spend Christmas with their sons, Albert and Foster Horner and their families. They intend to return to Honolulu on Wednesday.

The community Christmas tree given last Sunday for the youngsters at the Hawaiian hall brought out a large crowd of mothers and their children. This treat is given annually by local people, aided by the teachers of the Kapaa Sunday school class.

The St. Louis Glee Club entertained at the Hawaiian Hall with a concert, followed by a dance at the Kapaa Hall on Saturday evening. Both the concert and dance was well attended.

MAKAWELI HOLDS BIG CHRISTMAS TREE PARTY

Makaweli plantation held its annual Christmas tree celebration in the Community House last Saturday evening and over sixteen hundred men, women and children were present at the exercises.

Christmas tree celebrations will be held in the outside camps that were unable to attend the Community House party. Tonight there will be a tree in Camp 2, tomorrow night at Camp 5, and Thursday night at Camp 8.

Kilauea Musical Proves Success

A very successful performance of an operetta entitled, "Sun-Rise Land" was given by the teachers and scholars of Kilauea school, under the direction of Mrs. Irvine, on Saturday, December 16, in the Kilauea moving picture hall.

When the curtain was drawn up the stage presented a very pretty appearance from the varied colors of the Japanese costumes of the performers, many of whom had different colored umbrellas and fans. The effect was increased by a background of scenery painted by Mr. Irvine. The operetta consisted of an account of a visit made by a Japanese girl to England and who on her return to Japan relates her impressions to her friends contrasting the houses, manners and customs of English with those of her native land, from a Japanese point of view. The story which she tells her companions and their comments as she proceeds is very amusing and entertaining.

At intervals during the performance several songs, dances and choruses were given and were so well rendered that there were many encores.

An umbrella song and dance in which the performers danced and sang as they gracefully changed the positions of their umbrellas was enthusiastically encored. A fan dance was also very effectively given and

MRS. MIDDLETON, MRS. CARTER ARE JOINT HOSTESSES

Mrs. Robert Middleton and Mrs. Sam Carter were hostesses at two very delightful bridge parties at the home of Mrs. Carter in Hanamulu last week. The first was on Tuesday and the second on Thursday afternoon. Attractive prizes were awarded to those holding the two highest scores, as well as the low scores.

MRS. A. I. MARCALLINO HAS CHRISTMAS PARTY

Mrs. A. I. Marcallino entertained the children of Makaweli with a very enjoyable Christmas party at her home last Sunday evening.

a butterfly dance by the small children was exceedingly pretty and had to be repeated. Mrs. Akana took the principal character and her singing and dramatic ability were greatly appreciated. Mrs. Lewis accompanied the songs and dances on the piano.

proof of quality

Throughout the world 400,000 Studebaker cars are in use today. Yet the sale of repair parts from accidents as well as service, averaged only $7.00 per car during the first seven months of 1922.

Despite the fact that motorists are buying Studebakers at the rate of 125,000 cars a year, or twice as many as last year, yet the sales of repair parts are less than they were for the same period three years ago.

Economy tests recently conducted by the City and County of Honolulu have proved in a remarkable way the superior economy, in gas consumption and entire upkeep, of the Studebaker. The surprising way in which Studebakers recently have come thru bad accidents, with comparatively small damage to themselves, have demonstrated to island motorists the marvelous sturdiness and honesty of Studebaker construction.
